Including Hoskins and Thomasboro

Copyright, 1952, by Hill Directory Co., Inc.

In the following list the numbered streets are arranged in numerical order, fol-led by the named streets arranged in alphabetical order, the intersecting streets bng shown. The number of each building on the street is given in numerical order, a opposite the number is placed the name of the occupants or houseowner or tant. In the business blocks containing offices the occupants are shown by room nbers where practicable, in apartment homes the number denotes the number of t apartment. In all streets both sides of the street are included in one list. The pfession or business of individuals or firms is given only at their respective place obusiness; to find occupation of others refer to Alphabetical List of Names.

The symbol ◎ following a householder's name indicates that we have received iormation during the canvass that the house is owned by some member of the fily, but as the publisher cannot and does not guarantee the correctness of the iormation furnished, nor the complete absence of mistakes no responsibility for eors can be or is assumed, nor can the publisher furnish further information than tt shown.

The Δ preceding names denotes houses and places of business having telephones.

Figures in parenthesis denote old numbers.

(c) denotes colored.

The numerals that appear at right edge of columns, ahead of street descriptions and some seet intersections, are merely for the guidance of the publishers, and have no other sigcance.

CITY DIRECTORY USAGE SOARS TO

New High!

Post-war relocation of millions in their permanent homes; readjustment of business to normal conditions; the great new developments in civilian life just over the horizon of the future—these and other things make City Directory listing a "must" for all business people. Remember the huge upswing in City Directory usage.
